

The Italian Sea Group: New 63m ADMIRAL Superyacht Sold

March 31, 2016

The Italian Sea Group and its brand ADMIRAL have sold a new build 63-metre superyacht. The 63m Admiral yacht represents the Owner's precise requirements, bringing together perfect balance of Italian design, flair, creativity and style with the best suppliers and constructors.

Admiral and the Owner's team were given the task of creating the pinnacle of 20 years of Superyacht ownership and following a year-long design process and development, the shipyard is pleased to announce that yet another experienced owner has chosen Admiral over the Northern European shipyards.

The 63-metre will be constructed to Lloyd's classifications and is scheduled for delivery in 2019. The project will be managed by Superyacht Technical Services, the Owner's team, Alex Banning of SuperYachtsMonaco and Admiral's expert and dedicated in-house team.
